COLLECTION

YELLOWSTONE

Dutton in the Yellowstone Collection showcases the raw beauty of reclaimed lumber. The naturally textured wood used in these pieces has withstood the test of time for 150+ years and continues to live on through the furniture. Not only are these pieces unique in design but each board, with nail holes and other imperfections, has a history and story to tell. From the ranchers that have walked in and out of its former structures, to the skilled craftsmen that have created it into timeless furniture, this wood has and continues to make the American dream possible. Owning a Dutton piece of furniture means owning a piece of American history. Proudly hand crafted in the heart of America.
